ABOUT ME

I am a Creative Director, Brand Creator, Designer, 3D and Motion Graphics Artist, Print and Web Designer with 15+ years of advertising agency and consulting experience. I am currently based in the Chicagoland area where from I work with agencies and brands all over the U.S.

My work in cinema has had a large impact on my approach to advertising. I think through creative concepts in a multifaceted fashion and I often simultaneously develop concepts in multiple disciplines with my experience in writing, motion picture production, 3D animation, motion graphics, brand creation, print design, and web design. I believe in world building and consuming the senses in order to communicate a complete idea in each brand, design, commercial or website. I bring classical process to contemporary subject matter and I believe in the weaving of story-telling, experience and purpose into advertising campaigns.
